CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—[Special]—Wheat, only moderate speculative trading with moderate limits. Outside orders were few, and there was not much disposition on the part of local operators to launch heavily into new ventures. On the whole, the volume of trading was somewhat smaller than that of yesterday. Opening was a shade under yesterday's closing, and prices receded ¼ cent more, then advanced ½¢@½¢ cents, eased off again, prices declining 1 cent, followed by minor fluctuations, and closed ½¢@½¢ lower than yesterday. Corn—There was light local trade, and fluctuations were within narrower limits than any day this week.

Nothing new of consequence was developed and market was notably steady and without material change, closing prices being a shade lower than yesterday; oats were traded in to a moderate extent, and a quiet and steady feeling prevailed. No new features were developed and price changes covered a ¼ cent range. Mess pork—Trading was only moderate. Opening sales were made at 2½¢ advance, but little pressure to sell caused an easier feeling and prices receded 10. Later prices rallied 6¢@7½ and closed quiet. Lard—Fair trade was reported. Prices for deferred deliveries inclined in favor of futures. Short rib sides—Only moderate business reported. Prices opened rather easy, but rallied 2½¢@5 and closed at medium figures. VIRGINIA NEWS NOTES.

The directors of the Fairmount, Morgantown and Pittsburgh railroad, consisting of Judge Cross, Col. William A. Hanway and John Bradshaw, of Baltimore; Major W. C. McGraw, of Morgantown, and C. B. Carney, met at Fairmont, W. Va., Wednesday and ratified the consolidation with the State Line railroad.

Fire at Hampton, Wednesday night, destroyed Blackmor's feed store and Darden's residence, on King street, and broke the plate-glass fronts in the Schemly and Slaughter blocks. Loss $5,000.

James Mosby, a colored barber, was killed in Goshen, Tuesday night. A jury of inquest returned a verdict that Mosby was killed by a pistol shot fired by William Weaver.

The fourth annual fair of the Rappahannock Valley Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be held at Fredericksburg, Va., on September 30 to October 2, inclusive.

Arrangements are being made for the celebration, in Danville, in October, of the semi-centennial of Rev. Dr. George W. Daine's pastorate of Camden parish.

The Virginia State board of agriculture has elected Colonel Wm. T. Sutherland, of Danville, president, in place of Hon. Absalom Keiser, resigned.

Philip Broadbent, of Caroline county, was caught in the machinery of a steam sawmill Tuesday and horribly mangled, only living a few minutes.

A monument erected to the memory of Col. Joseph Moesche by the survivors of the Ninth New York regiment was dedicated Wednesday at Fredericksburg.

S. G. Brattan, brakeman on a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, was killed Wednesday at Dunlap, the train passing over him.

Mr. Stephen N. Davis, at one time a member of the House of Delegates from Henrico county, died Wednesday.

The Republican district committee made another unsuccessful attempt to have a meeting in Richmond Friday to decide whether they will call a Congressional convention. Only two members were present, and they decided to issue another call for October 7. Captain W. F. Wickham, of Hanover, has written to Colonel Norman Smith, of Henrico, stating that he will not be a candidate for Congress. He says the Republicans are hopelessly disrupted and disorganized in this district, with no leader, and no chance of electing their candidates.

The sales of lots at Buena Vista Friday amounted in the aggregate to $205,000. Of this amount $80,000 was put in West Buena Vista lots. The entire lot sales here this week will aggregate over $500,000. About 700 Savanah lots, adjoining Buena Vista, were sold this week.

The second day's sale of lots in Luray by the Valley Land and Improvement Company realized over $150,000. All lots sold at fine prices. Baltimoreans invested largely.

Hon. J. J. McDonald, of Northumberland county, has sent his resignation as a member of the State Senate to the clerk of that body. He does this because of his acceptance of the Federal office of custodian of public buildings in Washington. He is a Republican, and has been in the Senate for several terms.

Friday evening about 6 o'clock Thomas Buford stabbed his half-brother, Abraham Shackelford, with a pocket knife at Gloucester. The knife entered the left side below the ribs and cut down to the hip bone. The wound was two and a-half inches wide. Shackelford died yesterday afternoon. Buford was captured this evening.

Simon, a negro barn-burner, has been sentenced by the County Court of Middlesex to seventeen years in the penitentiary.

The Big R. & S. Mortgage.
ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Sept. 27.—[Special]—A mortgage, executed by the Roanoke and Southern Railroad Company to the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, covering the line of the road between Martinsville and Roanoke, at a valuation not less than $15,000 nor more than $20,000 per mile, was recently filed here for record. The State tax on the instrument was $1,000.

The Darby-Enright Dilemma.
From the Richmond Dispatch.

Darby Enright was one of the earliest settlers in Henrico county. His name appears upon the records in the clerk's office as the grantee in a deed dated February 1, 1678.

This Darby Enright left two sons, Darby and John Enright, each of whom had a large number of children, and each had a son named John. The families lived near together, and as may be supposed, the two Johns were often mixed.

In 1728 John Enright, the grantee in a deed, is described as "John Enright, son of Darby." Among the list of jurors, a few years afterwards, we find the name "John Enright, of Darby." In this manner the name and designation were from time to time contracted until John Enright, the son of Darby, was called John Darby to distinguish him from his brothers, and his descendants were called Darby. The other branch of the family retained the name of Enright, and there are in the State to-day both Darbys and Enrights.
